

First Nations Media Australia Board of Directors Nomination Form

Important Information about making a nomination

- Two Ordinary Members are required to sign the nomination. The Representatives of the relevant Ordinary Members, as advised to First Nations Media Australia, are to be the signatories.
- The Nominee is also to sign to indicate his/her acceptance of the nomination. The Nominee can be the Representative of one of the nominating Ordinary Members.
- Ordinary Members are listed on the First Nations Media Australia website at <https://firstnationsmedia.org.au/about/membership/member-list>

Completing the Nomination Form

There are three parts to the nomination form:

- Part 1 Nominee name and signature.
- Part 2 Ordinary Member nomination details and signatures.
- Part 3 Nominee skills, experience, attributes and other information to support the nomination.

All parts need to be completed for a nomination to be accepted.

To streamline the Seconding process, the Seconding documentation may be provided separately using the Board of Directors Nomination Seconding Form where timeliness for submission is an issue. If the separate Seconding Form is used, both Nomination forms must be received by First Nations Media Australia by the closing time and date in order for a Nomination to be accepted.

NOMINATIONS ARE TO BE SUBMITTED TO FIRST NATIONS MEDIA AUSTRALIA BY THE ADVISED DATE.
